THE WORLD'S HOTTEST FEMALE DANCE ACT!
PROJECT G RIP UP THE STAGE AT THE AFROBEATS MUSIC FESTIVAL 2013!

Following ground breaking performances at the 2012 Olympics, MOBO Awards and 2013 BEFTA-Awards, Project G took to the stage at Europe's largest Afrobeats Music Festival on Sunday 27th October, held at London's IndigO2 to an audience packed to the rafters!

The all-female collective are the first dance act to successfully fuse African and street dance together paving the way for an entirely new genre. The pioneering and versatile group performed a mind-blowing routine that brought the house down at the O2 this weekend setting them aside from their counterparts.

Having advanced to the semi-finals of Sky1's 'Got To Dance' in 2012, the group's impressive credits extend into live concerts for some of the hottest artists, having performed with and supported the likes of Rita Ora, Major Lazer, Ginuwine, J Holiday, May7ven, D'banj and Diversity's Ashley Banjo amongst many others. The group also make an appearance in Wizkid's infectious 'Azonto' music video.

Catch them performing at the Extravaganza International Dance Showcase in Kent, this Sunday 3rd November!
